Dear Mums, Dads and Carers,

From this

To that

Chicks

The eggs have finally hatched. We have got 10 chicks in total. The children have been able to look and observe them all through the day.

Staffing

May I introduce the new Assistant Head teacher (Teaching & Learning). Her name is Nisha Lingam and she will be starting after the Easter break on Tuesday 22nd April.

My name is Nisha and I will be joining Rowland Hill after the Easter holidays as an Assistant Head Teacher. I am really excited about becoming part of the staff team and getting to know all of the children and families at the Nursery School and Children's Centre. I have many years' experience of working with nursery and primary school age children and am very happy to have been given this opportunity. Rowland Hill has a fantastic environment for children to learn in and I'm looking forward to exploring areas such as discovery, the shared big garden and the community vegetable garden with the children! I hope you have a lovely Easter holiday with your families and see you next term. Best wishes Nisha
